ABINGDON DISTRICT CITIZEN SOUGHT FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY APPOINTMENT

The Gloucester County Board of Supervisors is currently seeking a Gloucester citizen in the Abingdon Magisterial District who is interested in serving a four-year term on the Economic Development Authority. The authority, a political sub-division of the Commonwealth of Virginia, has authority to acquire, own, lease and dispose of properties to promote industry and develop trade in Gloucester. Meetings of the authority are held quarterly on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m.

Abingdon District residents interested in serving are encouraged to submit a Volunteer Board Bank interest form. Forms are available by contacting the Department of Community Education by phone (693-5730) or email (awallace@co.gloucester.va.us) or online through the county's website, www.gloucesterva.info under "E-Services" and "Boards/Committees." For assistance or more information, please contact Community Education.
