

Please join us for the Unveiling and Dedication of the Werowocomoco Historical Marker

Saturday, June 25, 2016
10:00 a.m.

Gloucester's newest historical marker will be installed on the old Tucker Store site adjacent to the Colonial Court Circle on Main Street.

The morning's events will include

~Welcome & Introductions

~Unveiling & dedication of the Werowocomoco Marker by the Virginia Department of Historic Resources

~ Comments & observations by honored guests

~Light refreshments

Parking is available along Main Street, and on Carriage Court and Justice Drive. Event will be held "rain or shine."

Werowocomoco, led by Powhatan, the political and spiritual leader when the English founded Jamestown in 1607, served as the capital of Powhatan's paramount chiefdom.

Werowocomoco is located on Purtan Bay, along the banks of the York River. It was added to the National Register of Historical Places in March of 2006, and designated a Virginia Landmark in December 2005.