America's SBDC Starts New Federal Resource for Small Business

In April 2020 under the CARES Act and with the support of U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), America's Small Business Development Centers (SBDC), and the Association of Women's Business Centers (AWBC) were awarded a grant to develop a new website that provides small businesses with access to a consolidation of COVID-19 related information and resources from multiple federal agencies. The grant also supports a new training platform for small business advisors.

The public website, COVID-SB.ORG is now live and can be accessed by anyone looking for federal information related to COVID-19 and small business.
